Dear Daniel:
Don't ever forget one
night on College Ave.
Here's wishing you
lots of luck and happiness.
a friend,
C. H. D. Reed

Dear Louise
May I wish you
all the luck and happiness in the world in your remaining years of school
Love
Mary Colby

Dear Louise,

It is a joy to know that I shall have the pleasure of your cheerful personality next year again. It is earnest workers like you that make a teacher feel her profession is worth while.

Very sincerely,

Helen J. Knowles

Dear Louise,

It has been a pleasure to have you in my class. I shall always remember the happy-faced girl in the third seat, second row.

Yours sincerely

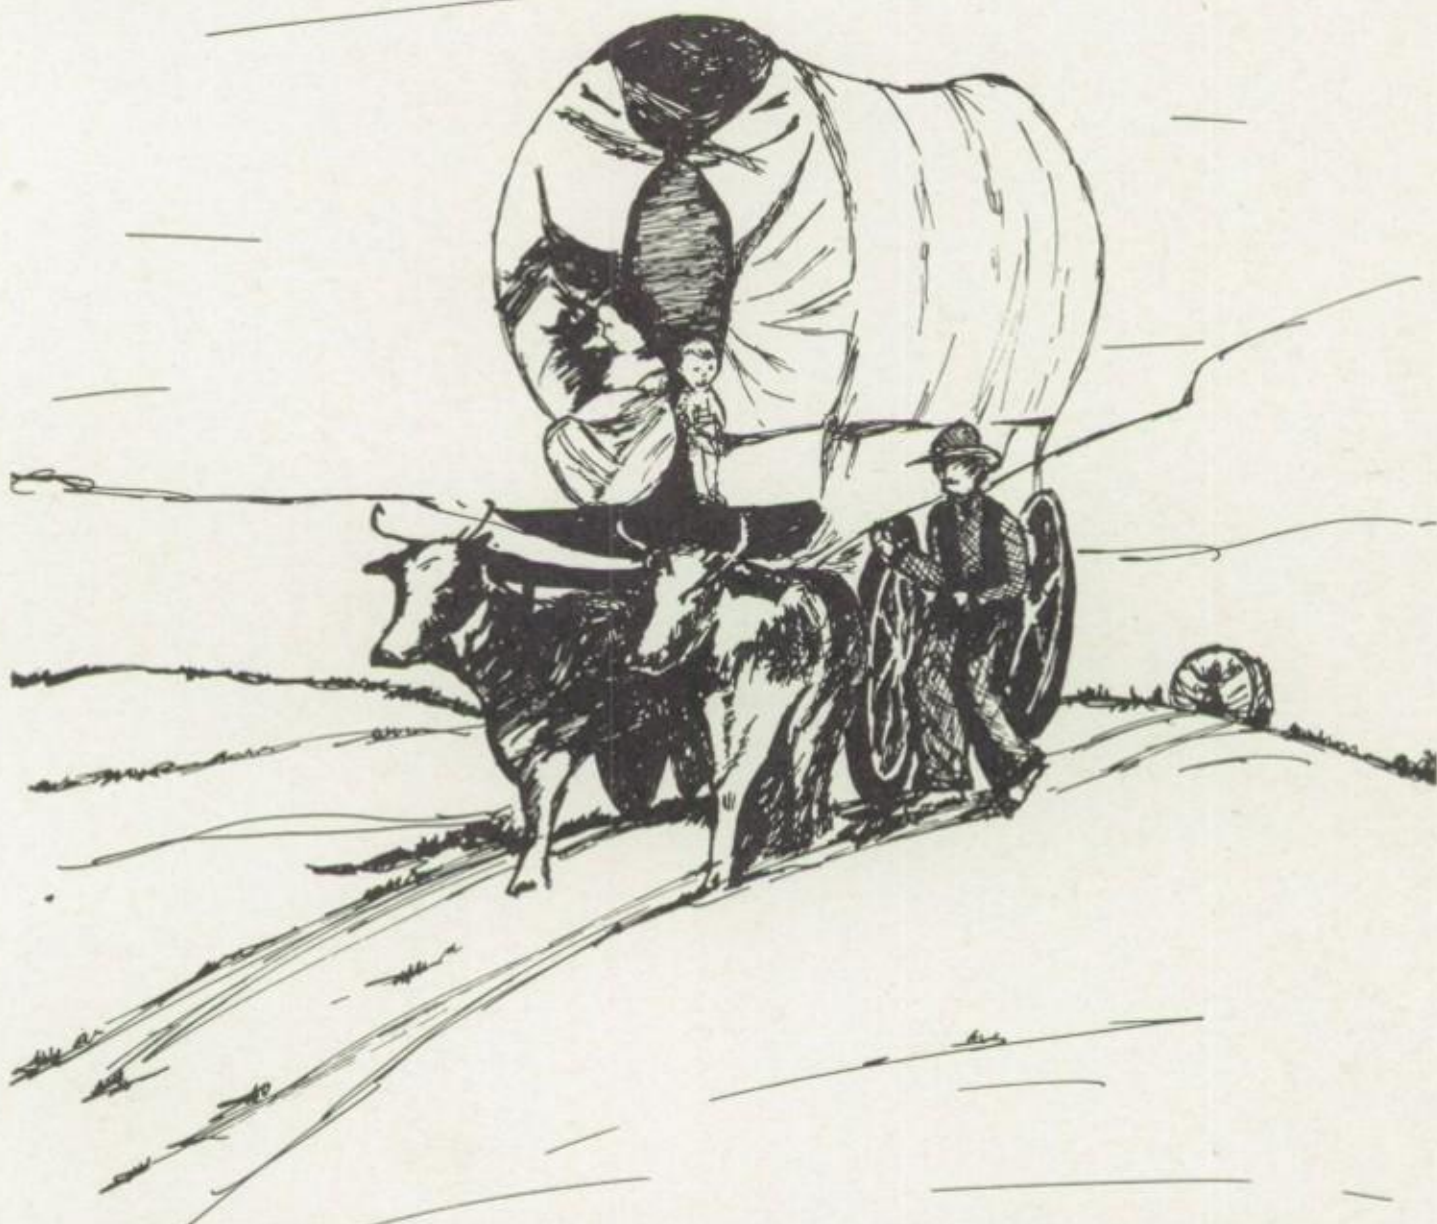

June 5, 1935

Eve Dwick

To you, everything good, and lots of it

Dedication

FOR HER UNFAILING interest in us and her service in the cause of the Yearbook, we, the Class of 1935, dedicate this LAMBKIN with sincere affection to

MISS ALICE R. WOLFE

FOREWORD

The Senior Class of 1935 compares High School with a quest for gold, similar to that of the Colorado "fifty-niners" who pushed westward with undaunted courage. The Freshman Class represents the beginning of the "rush", and the graduating class has found the treasure for which they searched, "pay-dirt."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Officers

President	-----	Dick Kreutzer
Vice President	-----	Ralph Westfall
Secretary	-----	Shirley Prendergast
Treasurer	-----	Margaret Burrill
Sponsor	-----	Mr. James A. Tracey

Student Council, consisting of twelve seniors, eight juniors, six sophomores, and four freshmen, carries the responsibility of the student government of the school. It meets the first and third Tuesday of each month at fifth period in room 310.

Representatives were chosen this year to attend the second annual meeting of the Northeastern Colorado Association of High School Councils held on December 5, 1934 at Fort Morgan. The purpose of the meeting was to further the interest in student councils and to give schools better opportunity to become acquainted with the organization of other schools.

The two projects especially sponsored by the Student Council this year were to aid in buying the grand piano for the school and to back the publication of the LAMBKIN.

Student Council also sponsors the candy stand, the money from which is given to those organizations of the school which have no other source of income or which need assistance in balancing their budgets. The school social hours are under the supervision of the Council.

BENZENE RING

Officers

President	Jack Ritter
Vice President	Arthur Burrill
Secretary-Treasurer	Ira Dilts
Sponsor	Mr. Charles V. Farnham

Benzene Ring is established to deepen the appreciation of chemistry and to increase a knowledge of its application and uses in the home and the community. Membership is for seniors who are interested in chemistry and whose grades in the subject are passing. This year there were about sixty members.

Once a month the club meets in the high school. Talks on minerals and metallurgy, on the Boulder Dam, interesting chemical demonstrations, and music by the club's members were included in the year's program.

BOYS' BOOSTERS

Officers

President ----- Keith Miller
 Vice President ----- Joe Wise
 Sponsors ----- Mr. Otie Reese, Mr. C. V. Farnham

The Boys' Pep Club was organized this year for the purpose of supporting athletics and other activities of the school.

Members are chosen at the first meeting of the year from the four classes and must be passing in at least three subjects. The distinctive mark of a Boy Booster is a yellow sweater with a purple lamb's head in front and the word "Lambkins" across the shoulders in back.

GIRLS' BOOSTERS CLUB

Officers

President	-----	Lucile Rudolph
Vice President	-----	Ruth Bartels
Secretary	-----	Ida Richard
Sponsor	-----	Miss Lorna Mulder

Peppy? I'll say they're peppy—those forty Boosters with their purple and gold outfits which they wear every Friday.

From a list of twenty candidates, ten are chosen from each class, and woe to the Freshmen! For they must go thru an initiation as peppy as the club itself!

The loyal Boosters back everything the school does. At basketball and football games, they put on stunts between halves, they sell tickets to every game and play, and stir up the school enthusiasm with rousing pep meetings.

DEBATE

Forensics is a major activity. The Lambkins are members of the State Debate League, the National Forensic League, sponsor Sharks' Club, give a school sweater for participation in forensics, and this year captured fourth place in the State Debate Tournament. Lambkin orators this year have taken part in 45 inter-school contests with teams from Colorado, Wyoming, and Nebraska. The debate teams have met Windsor, Cheyenne, Grover, Eaton, Ault, Longmont, Fort Morgan, Scottsbluff, Littleton, Greeley, University of Denver Freshmen, Rocky Ford, Florence, Holy Family, Arvada, and Boulder Prep.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Officers

President	Kirby Dalziel
Vice President	Alvin Hoerlein
Secretary-Treasurer	Helen Link
Sponsor	Miss Mabel Johnson

The Dramatic Club is organized for the purpose of sponsoring all dramatic enterprises, affording dramatic training for students, and forming social contacts between the members.

This club is one of the oldest organizations in the high school. Its membership is limited to those who have leading parts in the dramatic productions, or are business managers, property managers, or members of the stage crew.

The Dramatic Club has, as its annual production, the Vaudeville. This is planned and presented entirely by members of the club. A spring, fall, and winter picnic comprise the social functions of the year.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Officers

President	Francis Kintzley
First Vice President	Eugene Peterson
Second Vice President	Dale Peterson
Reporter	Sam Vance
Secretary	Lowell Bland
Treasurer	Reuben Michaelis
Sergeant at Arms	Clayton Eshelman
Sponsor	Lloyd E. Aspinwall

The Future Farmers of America is a nation-wide organization of farm boys with the purpose of making life more interesting on the farm. Chapter 37 is completing its fifth year in Fort Collins High School. During this time, many worthwhile activities have been carried on, both of an educational and a social nature.

Our chapter has been of state-wide service during the past three years by publishing the state F. F. A. paper, the "Colorado Future Farmer." The local chapter has the unusual distinction of having had a state officer during the past four years. The activity program of the chapter is formulated and administered by an Executive Council consisting of seven members. Social meetings are held once a month during activity periods. Besides the regular program for the school year, a summer program is carried out.

The membership this year is twenty-five.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Officers

President	Dick Kreutzer
Vice President	Ivan Johnson
Secretary-Treasurer	Mary Elizabeth Ellis
Sponsors	Miss Alice R. Wolfe, Mr. Roy M. Langdon

The purpose of the International Club is to foster in its members a deeper sympathy for and a broader understanding of nations other than their own. A serious study of international relations is effected. Membership is based on scholarship. Meetings are held once a month at the homes of the members.

During the first semester of the school year the program centered about the Latin countries and their relations with the United States; the second semester's study concerned Pacific countries with emphasis on Japan and China.

Representatives were sent to the annual conference of the Northern Colorado International Relations clubs at Sterling on February 2, 1935. The subject discussed was the United States and Latin-American relations. The Fort Collins Club represented Brazil.

Each spring the club sends delegates to a two-day state-wide international Relations Conference for high schools sponsored by the University of Denver. This year the conference also discussed Pan-American relations.

INTER NOS

Officers

President	-----	Louise Hoffman
Vice President	-----	Margaret Smith
Secretary-Treasurer	-----	Helen Link
Sponsor	-----	Miss Helen V. Knowles

These modern Romans as nearly as possible conjure up the shades of their departed predecessors. They tell Latin stories and sing Latin songs at their monthly meetings.

The two big events of their year are the fall initiation picnic and the spring banquet. The banquet is carried on in the real Roman manner. However, the club members balk at having roast mouse with poppy-seed on the menu; American strawberry shortcake is much preferred.

Sponsor	Mr. John R. Lanphear

Junior Hi-Y, an organization similar to the Senior Hi-Y, is composed of Freshman and Sophomore boys. The aim of the club is to create a better standard of Christian character among the members and throughout the school.

In addition to the usual meetings of the club many interesting and entertaining activities are held, such as: a Father and Son banquet, a Mother's Day Banquet, parties, and picnics.

Regular meetings come at activity periods.

KNIGHTS AND PAGES

President ----- Louise Scott

The Knights, better known perhaps as the Big Sisters, consist of Senior girls who have been active in Round Table. This organization was started by Miss Catren in 1920 and since has been very active.

The "Big Sisters" meet in the spring and choose their little sisters. In the fall a Knight's duty is to help the younger girls arrange their schedules and become acquainted with their teachers and the building.

One of the first social functions of the school year is the Little Sister Teas, to which all the new girls are invited.

The Knights try to be real sisters, to set up high ideals of scholarship and conduct, of honor in work and play, and fellowship in the school.

The Fort Collins Chapter of National Honor Society was organized in 1925.

Members are elected each year by a faculty committee who base their selection on the ideals of the society: leadership, scholarship, character, and service. Not more than fifteen percent of any one class can belong.

The Society holds a banquet each fall and a picnic each spring.

Press Club is an honorary organization composed of members of the LAMBKIN and SPILLED INK staffs and SPILLED INK reporters who have fulfilled certain requirements.

A picnic initiation is held each fall to start the year. A second initiation meeting comes in the second school semester for those who have been taken onto either staff during the first half of the year. A spring party usually concludes the year.

This year meetings were held when called rather than on a regular schedule.

Pledge

"I give my word of honor
 That I will do my best to:
 Live purely, think truly,
 Right wrong, and honor God."

Round Table is an organization for all high school girls. Its purpose is to promote high ideals, standards of character, and scholarship.

Two meetings are held every month; one a general meeting in the auditorium, the other a meeting of separate Chapters. The theme of this year's program was an airplane flight in which each meeting represented some part of the journey.

The outstanding social activities of Round Table during the year are: the fall and spring picnics; the Christmas party, which is a gift to the girls from Round Table; and the Mother's Day Pageant. The Social Service committee sends baskets of food and gifts of clothing at Christmas and Thanksgiving.

Hi-Y is among the oldest organizations in the school. Its chief purpose is to make better men of boys by instilling in them high standards of Christian character. Its platform is "clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, clean living."

This year's program was planned as a round-the-world trip where speakers addressed the club on various foreign countries. The group meets during each activity period and has one evening meeting each month.

Annual occasions include a Best Girls Banquet at Christmas and a spring picnic.

The club also assists the Round Table in distributing the baskets at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The Shark's Club has a membership of sixty persons, chosen from those interested in debate. This year's membership is larger than it has ever been before.

Meetings are held at homes of members where debating and extemporaneous speaking are studied. Various activities are planned such as picnics and debate tournaments. The most notable of the latter for this year was a discussion of the question: Resolved: That the Townsend Old Age Pension plan should be adopted by the United States government.

At initiations an impromptu speech was required of all new members. All the debate squad are required to belong.

IF I WERE KING

The dramatic productions of Fort Collins High School were ushered in by the Major Play, which was "If I Were King," Justin McCarthy's historical romance. In many ways it was the most artistic of the various productions in recent years. The story is so familiar as to need no telling. Francois Villon, a poet and leader of the Paris rabble, is suddenly made Grand Marshall of France for a week with the understanding that at the end of that time he will sign his own death warrant. The rest of the play concerns itself with showing how he saved France and Louis XI from the power of the Burgundians and won the love of a noble lady.

Sylvia Tittman, as Katherine DeVauscelles, played opposite Harold Bowen, Francois Villon, in leading roles. Both portrayed difficult parts very well. Louis XI, as played by Charles Post, was, perhaps, the outstanding characterization of the play. The roguish spirit of the common people of France was well enacted by the spritely Hugette and the aspiring Rene de Montigny, played by Kirby Dalziel and Fred Weinle. The entire cast included about sixty people, among whom were: Jack Schroer, Alvin Hoerlein, Bob Williams, Forrest Hall, David Sudduth, Ralph Westfall, Elizabeth Rumley, Georgia Lee Seyster, Helen Hannah, and Norris Nye.

ONE NIGHT IN BETHLEHEM

The annual Christmas gift of the high school to the community this year was the lovely version of the Christmas story, "One Night in Bethlehem." Through the eyes of a little child the audience again experienced the thrill of the awe-struck shepherds of long ago, the worship of the Wise Men, the bitterness of that cold Judean night, the kindness of the warm, clean stable where the Holy Family found refuge.

Before the pageant began, the A Cappella choir, robed in red and white, from a stage set with evergreens, sang old time Christmas carols. The windows of the main staircase were hung with the traditional Christmas pictures and lighted by tall tapers.

DOUBLE A FOLLIES

"Ship Ahoy" piloted by Captain Betty Jean Hughes, was presented at the A. A. Follies. The good ship G. A. A. sailed to many foreign countries, and the people of these countries entertained the ship's passengers with dances and songs.

The ship also visited the story-book "Land of Oz" and the modern "Land of Jazz." Seth Parker and his folks were featured.

The Follies were directed by Miss Lorna Mulder.

SOUTH IN SONORA

Bandits! Spanish señoritas! Handsome senors! "South in Sonora," with scenes laid in old Mexico, was the operetta presented by the music department this year. Its plot concerned Don Ricardo's decision that his oldest daughter must get a husband before any of the younger girls of his family might marry. Having fallen in love with some handsome young American engineers, the three younger sisters called upon a bandit chief to assist them in arranging a marriage for Catalina. Colorful costumes and bright settings, combined with very "singable" music, made the production one of the most enjoyable in years. A fact which made this operetta even more than usually interesting to Fort Collins people is that the composer, Charles Wakefield Cadman, once lived here. It was the kind of operetta that sent the audience home humming snatches of the choruses.

Principals of the cast included: George Kanavel, Warren Wisdom, Forrest Hall, Ward Miller, Bob Barnes, Leland Brack, Alvin Hoerlein, Harry Ross, Clyde Young, Patty Marshall, Alberta Ellis, Louise Barnhart, Jeanette Robinson, Kirby Dalziel, Gertrude Fischer, Fred Weinle, Dwayne Todd, Ralph Giddings, Bob Williams, and Marjorie Clippinger. A supporting chorus of sixty-one made the production most delightful.

VAUDEVILLE

This year's theme for the annual Vaudeville was "The Masquerade." The acts showed various people present at the dance. Among the scenes were: a Pierrot and Pierrette dance; a collegiate number, "Here Comes Cookie," with Dorothy Schureman and a boys' chorus; "Dancing with My Darling;" "Fare Thee Well, Annabelle," a novelty dance at a railroad station; an old-fashioned quartette; a girls' trio and chorus number; a Stage Crew Novelty dance; and solo dances by Annie Bobs Marshall, Bob Sullivan, and Sylvia Tittman.

STAGE CREW

Manager-----Harold Bowen
Electrician-----Jack Fallon

The group upon whom depends the success of every play or assembly program regardless of its nature is the stage crew. They make the scenery called for by any script, they run the flood lights to make the stage a fairy-land, a ship, a tall forest, a Christmas manger. Even the prompt pulling of the curtains depends upon the trustworthy stage crew. Most of their work is of the unseen and unsung type. Only Miss Johnson and those who work directly with the dramatic productions of the school can really appreciate the stage crew at its true worth.

The members of this year's crew are: Harold Bowen, Jack Fallon, Fred Weinle, George Roten, Bob White, Jack Goodwin, Trumon Armstrong, NaDeen Liggett, Margaret Cresswell, Jean Irwin. Louise Hoffman and Helen Link are property managers.

VOCAL MUSIC

Approximately one third of the students of the high school are registered in vocal music classes, which include glee clubs, choruses, voice classes, quartette, and A Cappella choir.

The A Cappella choir, organized this year, has a membership of forty. It has made many public appearances this year, both before local clubs and in connection with school activities.

The group participated in the State Music Festival which is held annually in May.

Miss Kathryn Bauder is director of the choir and of all the vocal classes. To Miss Bauder we owe the fine reputation of the A Cappella choir.

FORT COLLINS HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Officers

President.....	Jean Irwin
Vice President.....	George Kanavel
Secretary.....	Vivienne Barlow
Publicity.....	Ida Richards

Under the direction of Mr. Bueche, the orchestra this year has spent a good deal of time in improving its various sections and consequently shows the result of the hard work in commendable progress. Its annual concert was most enjoyable.

It is the orchestra which furnishes such a pleasant musical background for all school plays. This year they furnished accompaniment for the operetta, which added much to the production. As in years past, the group will enter the state contest this spring with the full expectation of adding to the good reputation it has already gained.

This year awards, in the form of letters, are to be given in the orchestra, as in the band. The bases for the award are: progress, attitude, turn-outs attended. Anyone who places in or wins a solo contest is also entitled to a letter.

Members of the orchestra are:

Violins: Alice Burlingame, Barbara Coffin, Roger Congdon, Frances Cutting, Bob Darnell, Betty Dimmitt, Ellen Gardner, Roberta Hiner, Bob Klipple, Ruth Krug, Elnora Lamkin, Alberta Larson, Gene Oakes, Dana Peiterson, K. C. Rock, Margaret Smith, Zoleda Smith, Miriam Strauch, Kenyon Vail, Margery Walker, Shirley Wire, John Woodard. Cello: Vivienne Barlow, Jean Irwin, Elizabeth Young, Bob Williams, Rhea Ruth Watson. Bass Viols: George Kanavel, Betty Johnson, Marion Jackson. Sousaphone: Curtis Johnson. Trombones: Robert Gardner, Claire Albin. Clarinets: Kenneth Goodwin, Wayne Draper. Cornets: Bill Adam, Dale Hobbs. Bassoon: Donald Graham. Oboes: Elizabeth Kinghorn, Ida Richard. Flutes: Fern Allard, Beverly Farrens, Virginia Stuart. French Horns: Dale Vannorsdel, Ruth Sullivan, Tom Halley.

FORT COLLINS HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Officers

President.....	Curtis Johnson
Vice President.....	Ward Miller
Secretary.....	Dana Peiterson
Publicity.....	Elizabeth Kinghorn

The band plays for high school assemblies, football games, and various community functions. Several times during a school term Sunday concerts are given for the enjoyment of the public. One major interest of the organization is the spring contest which it has been fortunate enough to win several times.

Starting this year, awards are to be given in the form of letters, such are given for participation in sports. To earn one of these awards, the member must attend a high percent of the turn-outs during the year; he must have made a sufficient amount of progress on his particular instrument; his attitude must be good; he must have been in the band for at least two years. However, any state solo winner is entitled to a letter regardless of length of membership in the band.

The band is very proud to have as fine a director as they have in Mr. Bueche.

The membership is as follows:

Sponsor	Miss Lorna Mulder

The Girls' Athletic Association is a branch of a state organization whose aim is to promote interest in girls' sports. G. A. A. sponsors five seasonal sports: Tennis, hockey, volley ball, basketball, and baseball. An All-Star game ends each season. The teams are chosen from the class teams. The only public appearance of girls' teams is the annual Yale-Princeton basketball game.

Points are given for participation in the various sports. Girls who have won enough points are awarded sweaters. After this award a Lamb-kin blanket and a state pin can be won.

The Double A Follies are given annually and sponsored by G. A. A. The proceeds are used to finance the association.

FOOTBALL

Captains-----Dick Kreutzer, Bob Sullivan
 Coach-----Mr. T. R. Blevins
 Assistant Coach-----Mr. Dan A. Beattie

Beginning with the customary football camp, held near Pearl, Colorado in the last week in August, the 1934 football season was a very successful one.

The team was handicapped by having only three returning veterans from the year before around which to build the 1934 eleven, but keen competition for first team berths and hard work developed a splendid spirit among the boys.

The team was light, being outweighed from nine to fifteen pounds a man in almost every game. The boys soon began to show the result of good coaching, however, by going through the conference without a defeat. The state semi-final game with Wray was a comparatively easy victory for the scrappy Lambkins, for they won by a score of 45-0. The following week came the state championship game with the Salida Spartans. This was by far the most thrilling game of the season. Although hopelessly outweighed, the boys battled on even terms for the first half, only to be scored on in the second half by a safety, giving Salida a 2-0 victory.

Various service clubs and town organizations helped the team wind up the season with the usual banquets and luncheons in their honor.

Coach-----Mr. T. R. Blevins
Manager-----Edwin Parsons
Assistant Managers-----Don Wolf, Don Savage

The 1934-35 basketball team was composed of several scrappy veterans, who were able to eke out thrilling one- and two-point victories over some of the strongest opposition in the conference.

The team opened the conference with a decisive victory over Windsor and kept the lead they had thus gained until sickness and injury became serious handicaps. In a crucial game the boys lost a "heartbreaker" to Eaton, which threw them into second place. From this point the team went on to finish the season in good old Lambkin fashion, defeating Longmont and Greeley by scores of 26-25 and 25-16 respectively.

As always has been the custom in the past, the season officially closed with a banquet given in honor of the team and coach.

Mr. Dan A. Beattie	Mr. Dan A. Beattie

Under the able guidance of Coach Beattie the track team had a very successful season in the spring of 1934. Many thrilling meets were held, starting with the Indoor, in which we were hosts to about thirty of the leading Colorado schools. This was an easy victory for the Lambkins, who piled up  $121\frac{1}{3}$  points for first place, Loveland following with  $52\frac{1}{2}$  points.

Another highlight of the cinder season was the Greeley Relays in which our old rivals from Loveland defeated us by a one-point margin. Their triumph was short-lived, however, as we won in the Northern, held in Loveland the following week.

On to Boulder for the Colorado Relays, the most important relay carnival of the year! The sprint relay came through for two hard-earned victories in the 440 and the 880 relay races, setting up a new record of 1:31.8 in the 880. A second in the two-mile relay raised our total to 14 points and spelled victory for the Lambkins.

The boys took both heavyweight and lightweight divisions by easy margins in the northern Colorado at Fort Collins the following week, qualifying sixteen men for the state meet. Vernon McHone and Bob Sullivan carried off high point honors in the heavyweight and lightweight divisions respectively.

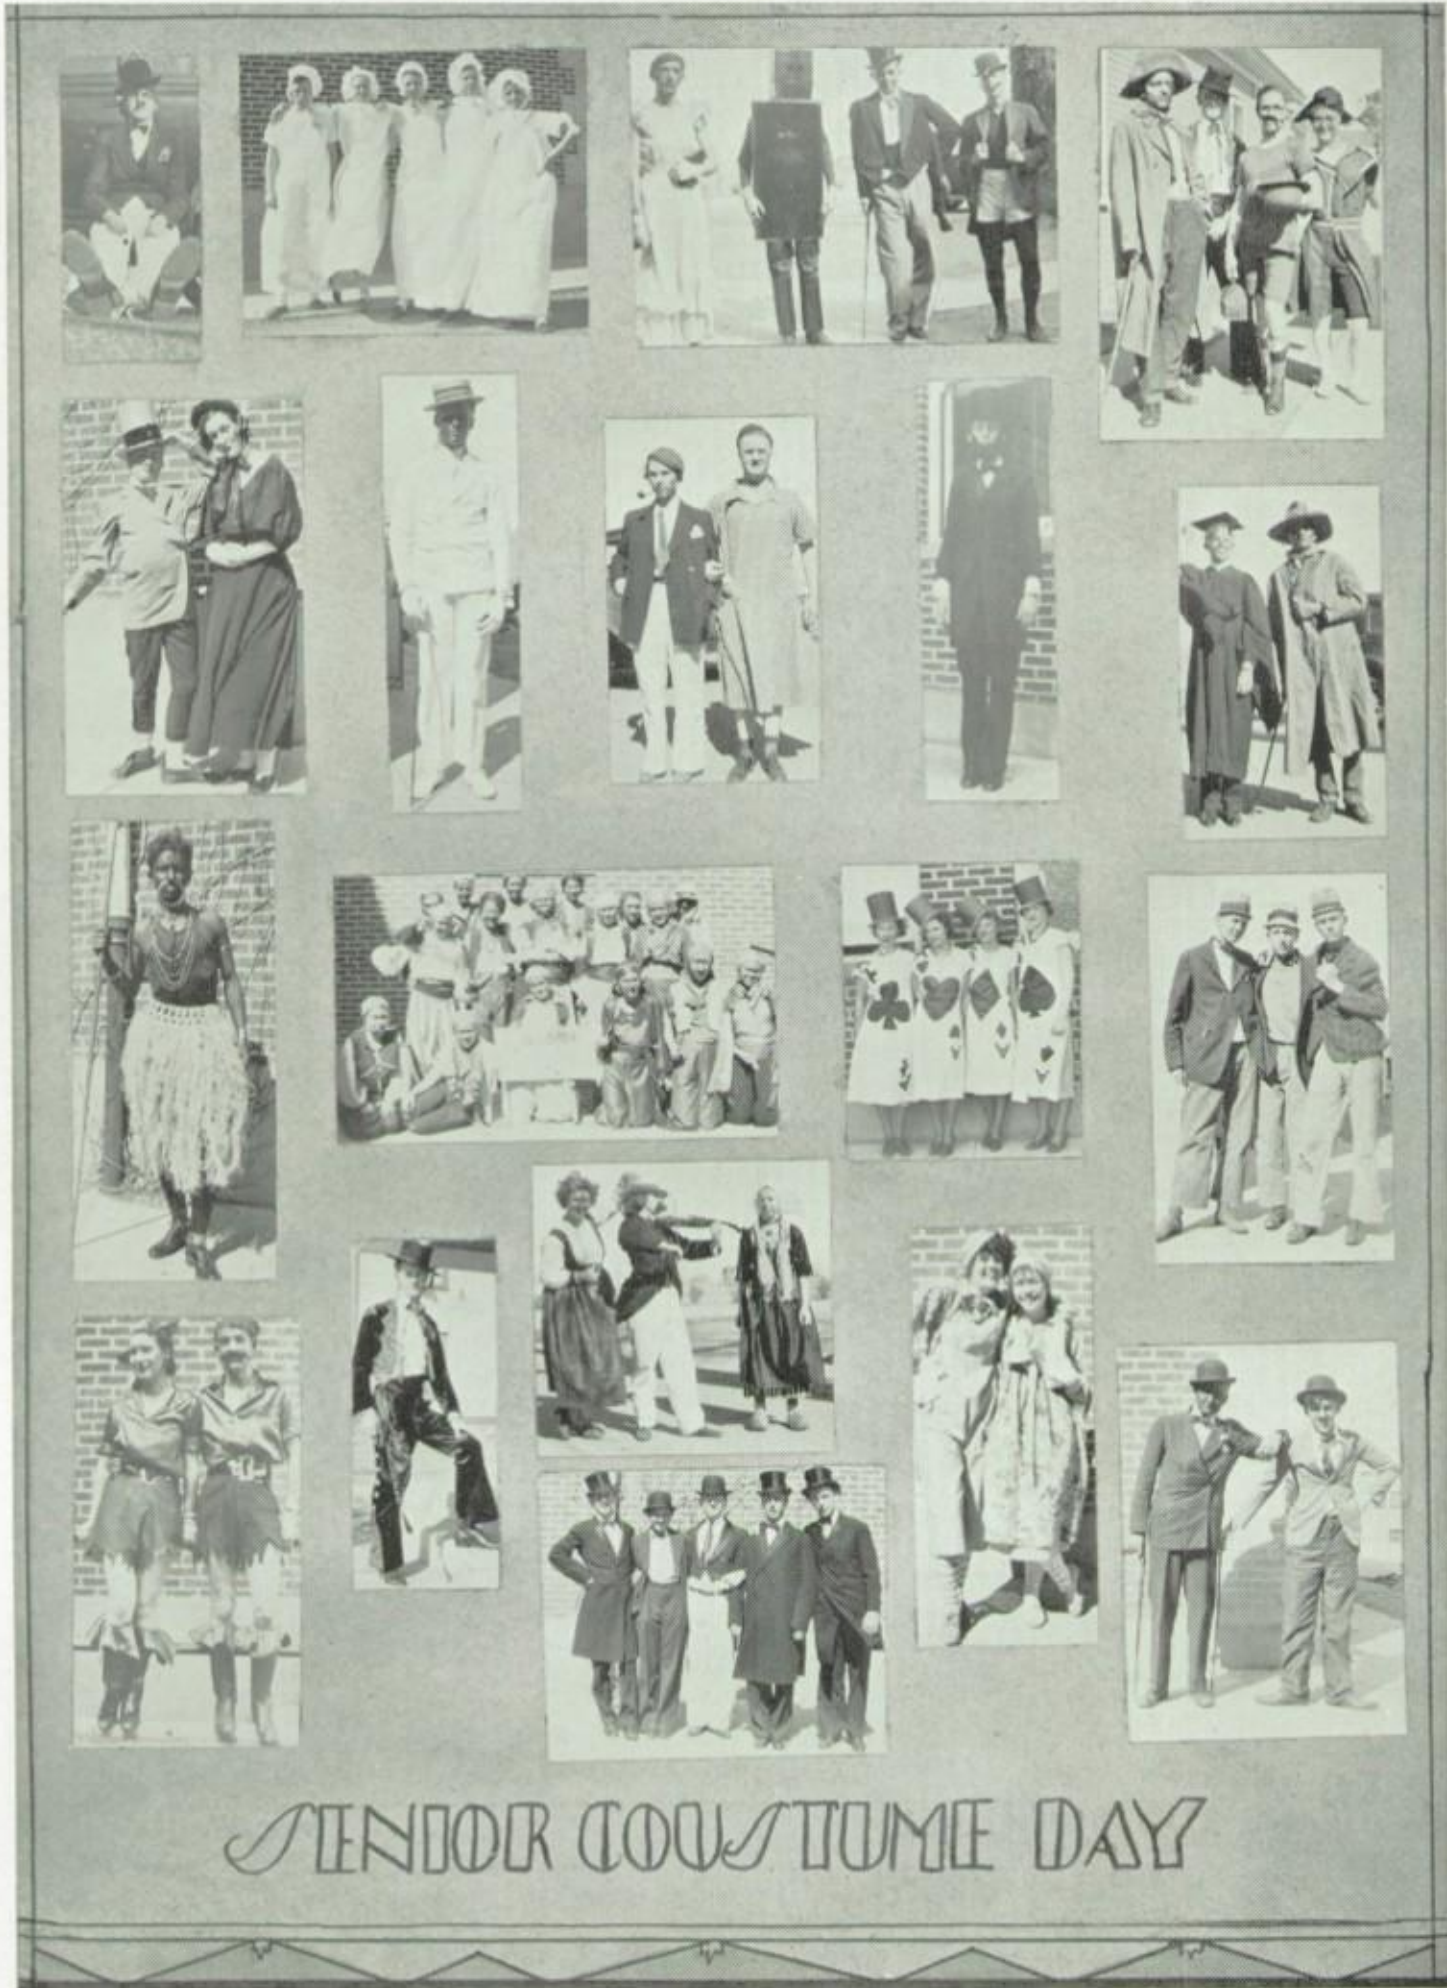

The State, of course, was the hardest and most important meet of the year. The Lambkins had a tough scrap all the way, but managed to win by two points in the closing minutes with a total of 28 points, Boulder running a close second with 26. The season was concluded with a picnic and a banquet given in honor of the lettermen who had won the state meet for the twentieth consecutive time.

"Nuggets of gold are fine in their way,
But nuggets of nonsense lighten the day."

Again the clever Chinese question our intelligence. Concerning the old Chinese custom of putting food on the grave of the departed, we ask: "When will your departed friend come up to eat the food?" The answer is, "At the same time that your friends will come up to smell the flowers."

* * *

Mr. Langdon: (during exam) Young man, what do you have to say about that writing on your cuff?

Dick K.: Isn't it terrible the way the laundry treats one's shirts?

* * *

"The jig is up," sighed the doctor as the patient with St. Vitus dance died.

* * *

Mr. White: I hear my son made a ninety-eight yard run in the big game.

Coach Blevins: That's true, but did he tell you that he didn't catch the man ahead of him?

* * *

Joe H.: Did you hear the story of the three aspirin tablets?

Louise B.: Huh?

Joe H.: Did you hear the—

Louise B.: No!

Joe H.: Maybe I should have said the three Bayers.

* * *

Anne T.: And what is your father's profession?

Rebecca R.: He is a worm imitator.

Anne T.: What?

Rebecca R.: He makes worm holes in antique furniture.

* * *

More water is used for making oceans than anything else.

* * *

Victor C.: I'll never forget you.

Helen R.: I'll tell you something that yill make you forget me.

Victor C.: What is it?

Helen R.: Tomorrow is my birthday.

* * *

Ellen R.: Oh, pshaw! I left my watch upstairs.

Margaret C.: Never mind, it'll run down.

Ellen R.: No, it won't—there's a winding staircase.

And another glutton for punishment is the stammerer who started raising chrysanthemums.

They say that Ralph W. bought a suit on the pay-as-you-wear plan.

Yes, and it's hung in his closet for seven years.

* * *

Ivan J.: Why are you wearing that old sweater to class? Haven't you any shirt?

Jack R.: Sure, I have lots of shirts, but they are both in the wash.

* * *

Miss Bauder: Why don't you practice what you screech?

* * *

Anna Bobs M.: Quite a dog you got there.

Dorothy S.: Yep.

Anna Bobs M.: Ever take a blue ribbon at a dog show?

Dorothy S.: Nope. Just a first prize at a cat show.

* * *

Little Lucille R. ran into the house, crying as though her heart would break. "What's wrong, dear?" asked her mother.

"My dolly—Billy broke it," she sobbed.

"How did he break it, dear?"

"I hit him on the head with it."

* * *

Alvin H. is so lazy he can't decide whether to stay in bed all morning or to get up early so he'll have a longer day to loaf.

* * *

Elmer R.: Say, where are you going with that fire hydrant?

Edward L.: I'm taking it home as a souvenir.

Elmer R.: Souvenir of what?

Edward L.: My first accident!

* * *

Jeanette C. (at riding academy): I want a saddle horse.

Riding Master: What kind of a saddle do you want, English or Mexican?

Jeanette C.: What's the difference?

Riding Master: English saddles are perfectly plain, and the Mexican have a horn.

Jeanette C.: Give me one with a horn. I'm not used to the traffic.

Tourist: Heap big pineapples.

Indian: Aw, heap 'em yourself.

We know a man who fell out of a twentieth story window without hurting himself. There was a balcony outside.

* * *

Tired Worker: Boss, is you got a nigger on your book, by the name of Simpson?

Bos: Yeah. What about it?

Tired Worker: Wal, I'se dat nigger, boss. I just thought you had it down "Samson."

* * *

Miss Johnson: I see by the papers they're reviving "Hamlet" in the East.

Bob I.: Oh, New Yorick stuff, hey?

* * *

"That's a chip off the old block," said the man when a bullet grazed his head.

* * *

Grocer: Would you like some wax beans?

Helen C.: Go away with your lousy imitations. I want real ones.

* * *

All good aviators are full of hops!

* * *

Miss Mundell: This essay on "Our Dog" is, word for word, the same as your brother's.

Bob Woodard: Yes'm. It's the same dog.

* * *

Mr. Beattie: If I tear a piece of paper in four, what do I get?

Arthur B.: Quarters.

Mr. Beattie: And if I divide it into eight?

Arthur B.: Eighths.

Mr. Beattie: And if I divide it into eight thousand parts?

Arthur B.: Confetti, sir.

* * *

"So you're going to barber college. What is your college yell?"

"Cut his lip, cut his jaw; leave his face raw, raw, raw!"

* * *

Ruth B.—How long did it take you to learn to drive a car?"

Norris—Oh, three or four.

Ruth—Weeks?

Norris—No. Motor cars.

* * *

Isaac and Moses dined in a restaurant that was new to them and were pained seriously by the amount of the check. Moses began to expostulate in a loud voice, but Isaac hushed him with a whisper: "Sh! I haf the spoons in my pocket."

When all women have been made perfectly beautiful as promised in the magazine advertisements, who is going to darn a man's socks?

* * *

The stingy farmer was scoring the hired man for carrying a lighted lantern to call on his best girl.

"The idea," he exclaimed. "When I was courtin' I never carried no lantern. I went in the dark."

"Yes," said the hired man sadly, "and look what you got."

* * *

Wayne Draper was in the dentist's office. The dentist had just finished extracting a tooth.

"Doctor," said Wayne, "the tooth next to that one aches too."

"Yes," replied the doctor, "it aches in sympathy."

"Yank it out," commanded Wayne. "Darn such sympathy."

* * *

George—And when are you going to allow me to kiss you?

Alberta—Come around Friday. That's amateur night.

* * *

Soph: Between you and me, what do you think of Jack's girl?

Fresh—Between you and me, not so much; but alone—oh, boy!

* * *

There was an old man who said, "How Shall I flee from this horrible cow?"

I will sit on this stile

And continue to smile,

Which may soften the heart of the cow.

* * *

Mr. Langdon: Who was Homer?

Jack Ritter: The guy Babe Ruth knocked out.

* * *

Two spinsters were discussing men. "Which would you desire most in a husband—brains, wealth, or appearance?" asked one.

"Appearance," snapped the other, "and the sooner the better."

* * *

Father: So you desire to become my son-in-law?

Elmer Rutt: No, sir, I don't; but if I marry your daughter, I don't very well see how I can get out of it.
